HUNTINGTON PLACE – CLEANING SERVICES

TERMS & CONDITIONS

All custom cleaning (vacuuming, car detailing, special floors in the booths, etc.) in the exhibit hall and any meeting room used for exhibits is provided exclusively by Huntington Place's House-Keeping department.

Exhibitors, using their own company employees, may vacuum within their own booth up to 200 square feet. However, any hired cleaning service or labor must be through the Huntington Place's House-Keeping department.

1. All Huntington Place Cleaning professionals are members of Service Employees International Union, Local 1 (SEIU). No other companies or unions are allowed to provide cleaning services.
2. Payment is due at the time of placing order. On-line order form is available on our website <https://www.huntingtonplacedetroit.com/plan-your-event/exhibitor-services-online-ordering>
3. A seventy-two (72) hour notice is required for any service changes. Order changes must be discussed with Huntington Place Management for proper billing.
4. Total square footage billed will be the actual display assigned to the exhibitor by show management. Any flooring figures will be subject to physical verification.
5. Final invoice will be made available upon request prior to show close. No adjustments will be made after closing date of the show. Any service issues must be brought to the attention of Huntington Place management on the date of occurrence.
6. Any specialized flooring materials that require special cleaning treatments must be discussed with Huntington Place Management.
